Montana Students Selected for United States Senate Youth Program -- Students Headed to Washington, D. C. and to Receive $5,000 Scholarship--

Senators Max Baucus and Jon Tester today announced the names of the two students who have been selected as delegates to the 51st Annual United States Senate Youth Program (USSYP) that will be held March 9 – 16, 2013 in Washington, D.C. Aidan Reichman of Ronan and Allison Sawyer of Missoula were chosen from across the state to be part of the group of 104 student delegates who will attend the program's 51st annual Washington Week.

The USSYP was created by Senate Resolution 324 in 1962 and has been sponsored by the Senate and fully funded by The Hearst Foundations since inception. Originally proposed by Senators Kuchel, Mansfield, Dirksen and Humphrey, the impetus for the program as stated in Senate testimony was "to increase young Americans' understanding of the interrelationships of the three branches of government, the caliber and responsibilities of federally elected and appointed officials, and the vital importance of democratic decision making not only for America but for people around the world."

Each year this extremely competitive merit-based program brings 104 of the most outstanding high school students — two from each state, the District of Columbia and the Department of Defense Education Activity — to Washington, D.C. for an intensive week-long study of the federal government and the people who lead it. The overall mission of the program is to help instill within each class of USSYP student delegates more profound knowledge of the American political process and a lifelong commitment to public service. In addition to the program week, The Hearst Foundations provide each of the 104 student delegates with a $5,000 undergraduate college scholarship with encouragement to continue coursework in government, history and public affairs. Transportation and all expenses for Washington Week are also provided by The Hearst Foundations, as stipulated in S.Res.324; no government funds are utilized.

Aidan Reichman attends Ronan High School and serves as senior class treasurer. In addition, Aidan is a member of Speech and Drama, and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. He enjoys philosophy, religious discussion, political debate, reading, drawing, designing, and engineering. Aidan aspires to go to college, get a degree in political science and become an elected official.

Allison Sawyer attends Loyola Sacred Heart High School and serves as senior class treasurer. Allison enjoys the leadership roles of class treasurer and National Honors Society president. She is a tennis team captain as well as a team leader in cross country and Lincoln-Douglas debate. She is an avid ballet dancer and enjoys volunteering with Key Club and other service groups. Her favorite pastimes are reading and writing. Next fall she plans to attend college out of state. At the moment, she aspires to become a political journalist.

Chosen as alternates to the 2013 program were Nicholas Descamps, a resident of Missoula, who attends Loyola Sacred Heart High School and Caelin Miltko, a resident of Missoula, who attends Loyola Sacred Heart High School.

The chief educational officer in each state selects the delegates after nomination by teachers and principals. This year's delegates were designated by Ms. Denise Juneau, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

While in Washington the student delegates will attend meetings and briefings with Senators and Congressional staff, the President, a Justice of the Supreme Court, leaders of cabinet agencies, an Ambassador to the United States and top members of the national media. The students will also tour many of the national monuments and several museums and they will stay at the historic Mayflower Hotel in downtown Washington, D.C.

In addition to outstanding leadership abilities and a strong commitment to volunteer work, the student delegates rank academically in the top one percent of their states among high school juniors and seniors. Now more than 5,000 strong, alumni of the program continue to excel and develop impressive qualities that are often directed toward public service. Among the many distinguished alumni are: Senator Susan Collins, the first delegate to be elected U.S. Senator; New Jersey Governor Chris Christie, the first delegate to be elected governor; Congressman Cory Gardner, the first delegate to be elected to the U.S. House of Representatives; former Chief Judge Robert Henry, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit; former Ambassador to West Germany Richard Burt, and former Presidential Advisors Thomas "Mack" McLarty and Karl Rove. Additional notables include former Lt. Governor of Idaho David LeRoy, former President of the Progressive Policy Institute Robert Shapiro, military officers, members of state legislatures, Foreign Service officers, top congressional staff, healthcare providers and university educators.

Members of the USSYP 2013 51st Annual Senate Advisory Committee are:
Co-Chairs — Senator Jeanne Shaheen of New Hampshire and Senator Richard Burr of North Carolina.
Advisory Committee — Senator Christopher A. Coons of Delaware, Senator Tim Johnson of South Dakota, Senator Mary L. Landrieu of Louisiana, Senator Frank R. Lautenberg of New Jersey, Senator John Boozman of Arkansas, Senator Tom Coburn of Oklahoma, Senator Jerry Moran of Kansas and Senator Marco Rubio of Florida. Each year, the Honorary Co-Chairs of the program are the Senate Majority and Minority Leaders and the Vice President of the United States.
